

TABLE OF CONTENTS

ANSGAR NÜNNING & VERA NÜNNING

Ways of Worldmaking in Literature and Other Media:
Theoretical Reconceptualizations and Constructivist Criticism 1

I. THE POLITICS OF WORLDMAKING

FRANCESCO PITASSIO

Making the Nation Come Real
Neorealism / Nation: A Suitable Case for Treatment 21

ERIK GRANLY JENSEN

“Communist Signals”: Broadcasting and Sci-Fi Worlds in Walter Benjamin 37

ANETTE STORLI ANDERSEN

Theatrical Worldmaking: How the Norwegian Constitution was Prepared within the Theatre 49

ENRICO LODI

A World of Violence: Representations of the Spanish Civil War 63

II. WORLDMAKING IN LITERATURE

HEIDE REINHÄCKEL

Weaving the Infinite Tissue: Poetics of Textuality in W. G. Sebald’s
The Emigrants and The Rings of Saturn 75

IRINA BAUDER

“Your Writers have instituted a World of their own”:
Possible Worlds in Eighteenth-Century Romance and Charlotte Lennox’s
The Female Quixote (1752) 87

STEFANIE SCHAEFER

Birth by Narrative: Narrative Self-Making in Autobiographical Fiction 105

ALEXANDER BAREIS
Science Fiction vs. Fiction Science: On the ‘Principle of Genre Convention’ as an Exploration Rule for Fictional Worlds 119

MIKKEL ASTRUP
Literary Desires of Samuel Beckett’s Worldmaking 131

III. WORLDMAKING IN OTHER MEDIA: MUSIC, COMPUTER GAMES, AND INSTITUTIONS

MARTIN LÜTHE
“If I Could Build My Whole World Around You”:
How Motown ‘Made’ the Sixties 145

RUDOLPH GLITZ
Making Worlds Historical: The Political Aesthetics of Sid Meier’s
Civilization Series 161

ANNA SEIDERER
The Postcolonial Museum as a Way of Worldmaking 181