

Contents

Jens Martin Gurr By Way of Introduction: Towards Urban Romantic Studies	7
Julian Wolfreys 'Otherwise in London' or, the 'Essence of Things': Modernity and Estrangement in the Romantic Cityscape	19
Ian Duncan Human Habitats: The City and the Form of Man	33
Tilottama Rajan "The signs and shocks of a more radical event": Poetry After Urbanization in Shelley and Keats	43
Torsten Caeners Romantic Urbanity and Urban Romanticism: The Metropolis as a Place of Romantic Imagination and the Case of Mary Robinson's "London's Summer Morning"	53
Mark J. Bruhn The Suburbs of the Mind: Wordsworth's Cambridge and the City Within	67
Kiyoshi Nishiyama A Cityscape 'to One Who Has Been Long in City Pent'	77
Joel Faflak "one ample cemetery": De Quincey and the Urban Space of Moral Management	89
Gerold Sedlmayr The City as "Hot-bed for the Passions": Romantic Urbanity and the Discourse of Hygiene	101
Christine Lai Romanticism and the Eclectic City	111
Rolf Lessenich Charles Lamb's London Wanderlust	127
Markus Poetzsch Leigh Hunt's Pedestrian 'Townosophy': Reading London on Two Feet	139

Frederick Burwick Tom and Jerry; or, Life in London: Urban Representations and Mirror Reflections	147
Angela Esterhammer Impersonation in Late-Romantic Urban Performance and Print Culture	155
Anthony John Harding The London Magazine and the Metropolitan Reader in the 1820s	165
Mihaela Irimia "No chimney half so foul appears, as doth the human heart": (S)weeping the City Clean from Blake to Popular Culture	175
Katharina Rennhak The Politics of an Irish Cityscape; or Romantic Dublin as a Conspicuous Absence	191
Pascal Fischer The City in the Anti-Jacobin Novel: A Place of Taste and Terror	203
Kate Scarth From Village to Suburb: Mr. Knightley's Management of Highbury	215
Drummond Bone Byron and the City: Nature and Art	225
Kevin Gilmartin Country and City in Romanticism's Evangelical Revival	233
Cian Duff "Nothing in the World Can Equal such a Scene": Istanbul and the 'Romantic' Sublime	249
Michael Gassenmeier and Martin Seletzky In Memoriam Hermann Fischer (1922-2009)	257