

CONTENTS

| | | |
|----------|---|----|
| 1 | Music and the Social (Introduction) | 1 |
| 1.1 | Music in the Americas | 4 |
| 1.2 | The social and social movements | 5 |
| 1.3 | Traveling sounds | 8 |
| 2 | Music and Identity Politics | 15 |
| 2.1 | Entangling and entangled music-produced identities | 15 |
| 2.2 | Black power and black diasporic identity circuits | 18 |
| 2.3 | Citation practices and fluid identities between North and South | 20 |
| 2.4 | Zooming in: diaspora, ethnic, postethnic, and postblack dimensions of sonic identities | 22 |
| 2.5 | Las Krudas (Cuba), Chocquibtown (Columbia), Janelle Monáe (USA): creating new sonic networks and expanding twenty-first century sonic identity politics | 28 |
| 3 | Sonic Politics from Above, Below, and Within Market Circuits | 39 |
| 3.1 | Prelude | 39 |
| 3.2 | Sonic cosmopolitics from above | 41 |
| 3.3 | Sonic cosmopolitics from below | 47 |
| 3.4 | Sonic cosmopolitics from within market circuits | 57 |
| 3.5 | Conclusion | 62 |
| 4 | Tourism, Nostalgia, and the Fabrication of ‘Authenticity’: ‘Sonic Urban’ Identities | 71 |
| 4.1 | Tourism and local and global music circuits | 71 |
| 4.2 | Reinventing the city, reinventing music | 72 |
| 4.3 | Ethnicity in the context of global commodity culture | 75 |

| | | |
|------|---|----|
| 4.4 | Exploring the intersection of cultural and economic politics | 76 |
| 4.5 | Contemporary Chicago blues scene: politics of authenticity and Chicago as ‘Home of the Blues’ city | 77 |
| 4.6 | Chicago’s creation as “authentic blues city” and the transnational tourist | 80 |
| 4.7 | Politics of authenticity: politicization and commodification of blues music/differences between African American and mainstream perceptions | 82 |
| 4.8 | New agency in the process of commodification: black cultural politics in Chicago | 86 |
| 4.9 | Reggae tourism in Jamaica | 87 |
| 4.10 | Brazil’s rock at home and samba tourism | 91 |

5 Music Goes Museum: Cultural Heritage Politics and Museums of Popular Music in Brazil, Jamaica, and the U.S. Deep South 99

| | | |
|-----|---|-----|
| 5.1 | The Museo do Samba in Rio de Janeiro | 103 |
| 5.2 | The Bob Marley Museum in Kingston, Jamaica | 106 |
| 5.3 | The Peter Tosh Museum in Kingston, Jamaica | 108 |
| 5.4 | The blues museums in the Mississippi Delta | 110 |
| 5.5 | The Delta Blues Museum in Clarksdale, Mississippi | 115 |
| 5.6 | The B.B. King Museum in Indianola, Mississippi | 121 |
| 5.7 | Heritage in local and global commodity culture | 125 |
| 5.8 | Coda | 129 |

6 Music in Literature and the Arts: Black Historiographies 135

| | | |
|-----|--|-----|
| 6.1 | Black modernism and music-inspired historiography | 137 |
| 6.2 | Black modernism: Music in Aaron Douglas’s and Langston Hughes’s rendering of temporality and history | 139 |

| | | |
|----------|--|------------|
| 6.3 | Revisiting music and history in black literary postmodernism: Ishmael Reed and Ntozake Shange | 147 |
| 6.4 | Contemporary dub poetry and diasporic historiographies: Afua Cooper and Lillian Allen | 156 |
| 6.5 | Lillian Allen's body politics: dub poetry as a social force | 163 |
| 6.6 | Music and history in contemporary mural and street art in Toronto, Canada, and Kingston, Jamaica | 169 |
| 7 | Sonic America(s): Politics of Recognition and Recent Trends in Music Documentary to Rethink the Relation between Music and the Social | 183 |
| 7.1 | Buena Vista Social Club (1999) | 188 |
| 7.2 | Standing in the Shadows of Motown (2002) | 191 |
| 7.3 | 20 Feet from Stardom (2014) | 194 |
| 7.4 | Searching for Sugar Man (2012) | 197 |
| 7.5 | Flor de Muertos (2011) | 202 |
| 7.6 | Conclusion | 204 |